BOSTON COPPER MARKET.

Amalgamated Dropped $9-Selling Orders Bewilder Brokers. Orders Bewilder Brokers.

Boston. Dec. 8.—Weak spots were plentiful on the Boston stock exchange before noon today and excited brokers rushed about, bewildered, as immense selling orders came out, taking down prices almost without a check. Many holders of Amalgamated Copper shares parted with them soon after the gavel fell, thousands of shares going overboard. The stock opened at $85.50 and fell to $59.50, where it steaded for a brief period.

The other coppers were weak, Utah losing $3.50, going to $40.90; Osceola, $2.90, to $156, and Centennial, $1.25, Comper Bange.

was erratic, but generally stronger than the other coppers. In the afternoon there was a rally and the market closed with prices at about the highest of the day.
Copper Range gained seven points and favorably influenced the chief coppers.

who has given the subject considerable thought and who is familiar with the requirements of the industry of minng and reduction of ores in this and surrounding states, makes asstrong plea for riore and cheaper power-and urges the utilization of the numerous big streams coursing the valleys and mountains of the state for that purpose. In a communication he says:

Hiko, Nevada, Property That Looks
Good to a Salt Laker.

Callente, Nev., Dec. 7.—H. W. Horne, a United States deputy mineral surveyor, of Salt Lake City, has just returned from Hiko, where he has been surveying four claims for the Arrow Mining company for patent. He says he never saw better surface indications on any property, and thinks it only awaits development to prove a big proposition.

While no depth has been attained—the deepest shaft will not exceed twenty feet—they have opened up seven different places, each in ore shoots, and carrying values in gold, sliver and copper. The company expects to do a large amount of work on this property, commencing in the near future.

New York, Dec. 8 .- A violent squall which wrought havoe while it lasted, Wells-Fargo which wrought havoe while it lasted.
But which was dissipated almost as quickly as it came. Compared with the stormy scenes of the day, the final market was as placid as a summer lake, and the buying of stocks was going on as systematically as though no disturbance had occurred. A review of the day's net changes reveals not a few gains, and even the worst of the losses are confined to moderate proportions. Unfortunately for those who sold their stocks either from Iright at the crumbling tendency of prices or from necessity to repay borrowed money, the final prices of the day's no means represented the prices at which the largest part of the day's sales were made.

W. M. Havenor, the veteran Comstock miner and railroader, so well known here, where he has made his home for many years, writes The Herald another interesting letter from Lida, Nev., his present headquarters. Mr. Havenor is conducting a prospecting expedition into the region of which the old camp of Lida makes an admirable supply base, and his letter shows that the camp is attracting a great deal of attention and that it is one of merit. Under date of November 29th, Mr. Havenor says:

Series A.

Corn is up 180% cent. Oats show a gain or 1/2 cent. Provisions are down 21/26 11/3/2. Wheat at the opening was weak. May being unchanged to 1/2 lower at 110/4/20 11/3/2. One influence tending to create braish sentiment was continued liberal receipts in the northwest. Another factor was a report of excellent harvest weather in Argentina. The effect of yesterday's heavy liquidation was in evidence early in the day, and with little support the market became still weaker. Shorts covered freely on the slump, but before the decline was checked May had sold off to 1.09½. The sensational break in Wall street is said to have induced much selling of wheat here. Toward the niddle of the day, however, the wheat market rallied sharply on liberal purchases by a leader of the longs. The early loss was quickly regained and prices soon showed good gains over initial quotations. On an axcellent general demand the market held strong throughout the remainder of the session. An unconfirmed report of large sales of flour at Minneapolis was responsible for much of the late bullishness. Another factor was the strength of wheat at St. Louis. Shortly before the close May reached 1.113/2, the highest point of the day. Final quotations were at 1.111/2.

Trading in corn was on a fairly generous scale, and the market ruled firm the entire day. May opened a shade to 1/40/2 cent higher at 44% 644%, sold between 1/41/2 cent in the oats market. May opened unchanged at 30% cents and sold at 30½ and closed at 30½ cents.

Liquidation of scattered holdings caused weakness in provisions. At the close May pork was off 10/612½ at 12.77/2012.80. Land dws down 21/4 at 7.05. Blbs showed a land of the same and the market of the long May pork was off 10/612½ at 12.77/2012.80.

Liquidation of scattered holdings caused weakness in provisions. At the close May pork was off 10@12½ at 12.77½@12.80. I ard was down 2½ at 7.05. Ribs showed a loss of 2½% cents, at 6.67½@6.80.

New York, Dec. 8.—Coffee—Spot, steady. The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 5 points in sympathy with steady European markets and modefate Brazilian receipts. The break in the stock market caused active liquidation by Wall street houses, but the coffee was taken by trade interests and the market ruled steady to firm. The close was steady at a net gain of 5 to 10 points.
